Notice to Merchants.

FORWARDING OFFICE
S. C. R. R. Co.
CHARLESTON, March 16, 1861.

THE South Carolina Railroad Company having determined to discontinue this department of the service, the undersigned, who has been the forwarding Agent of the Company for the last four or five years, has associated with him the Chief Clerk in the department, and, under the name of GANTT & STONY, will continue to RECEIVE and FORWARD such articles as may be consigned to his care. He trusts, by strict personal attention, to retain a very liberal share of the business of the department.

Parties are reminded that all goods now reaching this port from points beyond the Confederate States of America, must be entered at the Custom House, and that duties are payable on such as are not purchased on or before the 28th February last, and laden on shipboard on or before the 15th March instant, save such as are on the free list. It is therefore necessary that remittances be made for this duty, to cover the expense of Custom House entry, whether the goods are free or not. Prompt compliance will prevent delay and expanse, as all articles not entered and permitted will be stored by the Custom House officers. The South Carolina Railroad Company will advance, as heretofore, the charges of freight, drayage and wartage, but not the expenses connected with the Custom House.

Rates of charges for forwarding will be very moderate, and may be had on application to GANTT & STONY, to whom all business communications should be addressed.

The undersigned refers to the officers of the South Carolina Railroad Company, to the customers of the Forwarding Department, and to all merchants of standing in the city of Charleston, and respectfully solicits a liberal share of patronage. JAMES L. GANTT.

Late Forwarding Agent S. C. R. R. Co.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

THE NEWBERN

Daily and Weekly Progress.

IT IS ALREADY KNOWN TO THE PUBLIC that the unceremonious entrance of Burnside into Newbern on Friday last has compelled the temporary suspension of the PROGRESS. This was a barbarous and villanious proceeding of old Burnside, inasmuch as it has deprived the public of the advantages of a good paper, besides the inconvenience to the citizens of Newbern.

By the discomfiture of our arms at Newbern, I have lost everything I had in the world—presses, type, and stock and other office material and furniture and other property of all kinds, is all gone—but still I hope to be able to make arrangements at an early day to issue the PROGRESS at some point not very remote from the old stand; this will depend however upon the extent to which Burnside is able to penetrate the bowels of the land.

Having lost all I have, I must urge all who are indebted to the PROGRESS office to make immediate settlement. Though in the army my address will be for the present, Goldsboro, N. C.

☞ Papers in the State that receive the PROGRESS in exchange will please copy or notice this card. J. L. PENNINGTON.

PROSPECTUS

HILLSBOROUGH RECORDER,

DEVOTED TO

POLITICS, AGRICULTURE, MISCELLANY, GENERAL NEWS.

PUBLISHED BY

DENNIS HEARTT,

HILLSBOROUGH, N. C.

WITH the present volume the RECORDER commenced the fortieth year of its existence, the first number having been issued the 10th of February, 1820; during all which time we have labored to make our paper interesting and useful, and we hope that in these particulars we have not been altogether unsuccessful. It has been our wish to make the RECORDER a good Family Paper, devoted to Politics, Agriculture, Miscellany, General News, &c., with a view to the entertainment and improvement of the farmers and artificers of the circle in which it is distributed. Our Agricultural department we endeavor to fill with the best selections we can make from all sources, giving preference to such as will be of practical use to the farmer and cultivator; and in this particular we hope to make the RECORDER as valuable to the agriculturist as any periodical of a purely agricultural character. In our Miscellaneous department, we shall continue to be, as we have always been, careful to select such articles as will have a tendency not only to amuse, but to improve the mind and heart. While we shall be thankful to receive well-written articles to adorn our columns, we are not so ambitious of originality as not to prefer selected matter of superior merit, to loosely-written and ill-digested articles, though ornamented at the top with the coveted words—"Written expressly for the RECORDER." In our News department we shall take especial pains to present to our readers the latest intelligence; and to enable us to do so we have facilities equal to those enjoyed in any portion of the State, except those favored with telegraphic communication.

A single copy; one year.....$2.00
Six copies, one year.....10.00
Ten copies, one year.....15.00

Payment always in advance.

Any of our old subscribers who will obtain five subscribers and send us the cash, shall receive their own paper free of charge.

The Edgecombe Farm Journal.

THE subscriber will commence on or about the 1st of September, 1860, the publication of a monthly journal in Tarboro', to be devoted to the plantation and rural interests of North Carolina in particular, and of the South generally.

Edgecombe having long since been acknowledged as the model farming county of North Carolina, we feel that there is no locality better suited, and none more justly entitled, to the source of publication of a first class agricultural paper than Tarboro'. It is to be called

"The Edgecombe Farm Journal,"

And will contain original and selected articles upon Agriculture, Horticulture, Floriculture, Household Arts, Rural Architecture, Zoology, &c., &c.

It will be published with new type and clear white paper, in a neat quarto form.

The price of subscription has been made so low as to place the publication within reach of every one.

PROSPECTUS

STATE JOURNAL.

HAVING become the proprietor of the Democratic Press. I have merged that paper into the STATE JOURNAL, which will be published Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

The STATE JOURNAL will advocate Democratic principles in the broadest sense, and will support and defend Democratic measures and their advocates as they are presented, and as occasion may require. In other essentials it will be my aim to make the paper, what its name denotes, a State Journal—eschewing all sectional consideration and working for the entire State and her common interests.

As soon as arrangements can be made, the whole paper shall be re-modeled and printed with new type, on good paper, and in a superior manner.

The Editorial department will be properly attended to in its various branches, and will speak for itself. Neither labor nor expense will be spared in the management of the paper.

The terms of the State Journal will be as follows:

Semi-Weekly, per annum.....$4 00
Weekly.....2 00

These terms will be insisted upon invariably in advance. No name will be put upon the list without the money, and all papers will be discontinued at the expiration of the time for which they have been paid, unless the subscription be renewed. I am satisfied, from years of experience, that upon no other footing can any newspaper hope to succeed.

Advertisements of a proper character will be inserted at the following rates:

One square, first insertion.....$1 00
Each subsequent insertion.....25 cents.

A liberal deduction on these rates for yearly advertisers in the Semi-Weekly. In the Weekly edition the full rates will be charged.

A NORTH CAROLINA PAPER

THE TIMES;

A large Eight-Page Weekly, published in Greensboro.

$2.00 a year; $1.00 for six months.

THE TIMES contains weekly forty columns of choice matter, specially adapted to the family circle. It is neither sectarian nor political, but by being courteous to all sects and parties, it is the constant aim of the publishers to present, in its columns whatever may elevate the people and enrich the State. The publishers would earnestly appeal to the families of North Carolina to give THE TIMES a trial; try it for six months, to see if it be not as well to patronize home papers, as those from abroad; to build up home interests and a State pride, and to scatter our substance and our energies among strangers. Give THE TIMES a trial and then let it stand upon its merits.

WHAT IS SAID OF THE TIMES.

"The Times I regard as the very first of our Southern Literary Weeklies."—Rev. C. F. Deems.

"I know of no Weekly published anywhere, that is so deserving of public patronage as the Times."—Rev. J. E. Edwards.

"There is no pandering to a vitiated taste—every article is of a moral tendency, and calculated both to amuse and instruct."—Wilmington Herald

"One of the finest and honest weekly papers published in the Union."—Spirit of the Age.

"Let the people of North Carolina encourage their own newspapers."—Raleigh Standard.

OF

THE CHARLESTON MERCURY

A POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL AND LITERARY

NEWSPAPER

PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY

THE MERCURY gives daily reports of the Market and Marine Intelligence in Charleston, and at Charleston commercial with the leading seaports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by Telegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished Correspondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London Times,) and regular Correspondents in New York, Washington, Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive. Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interest, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the family circle.

The political creed of the MERCURY consists in the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the Agent of the States; Free Trade, and an economical Administration of the Government. Its policy is the Union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights.

THE FARMER AND PLANTER

COLUMBIA, S. C

HAVING purchased of Maj. Geo. Seaborn this popular journal, I have removed its place of publication to Columbia, and will hereafter issue it from this city at regular stated periods.

Feeling confident that such a Journal is greatly needed in this State, and believing that it will be sustained, if located at the Capitol of the State and conducted with spirit and ability, I have determined on making the venture, and call upon every Farmer and Planter in South Carolina to encourage the enterprise by their patronage.

It will be printed in the finest style of Typography, with new type, on fine paper, handsomely embellished, and eight pages added to its former size.

Price only ONE DOLLAR per annum, always in advance.

A corps of the best practical and scientific Agricultural writers have been secured, and its Editorial department will be under the care of one of the best Farmers in the land.

The Cash system will be rigidly adhered to, and no name will be entered on our books until subscription is paid.

Address E. M. SEABORN,

To the People of North Carolina.

At the request of President Davis, I have undertaken to collect all of the arms now in the hands of private citizens of our State. For that purpose I have been invested with authority to borrow, purchase, or, if necessary, to impress them. I am satisfied that it will never be necessary to resort to the use of the last named power. Patriots of North Carolina, our soil is invaded, and though we have men enough to repel the invaders, our men are useless unless they have arms. Upwards of 20,000 stand of arms are now lying useless in our houses; these arms should be collected and placed in the hands of our noble defenders. None but a craven or disloyal citizen will refuse to comply with this requisition. I will implore your patriotic appeals to go [illegible] to borrow, purchase, or, if necessary, impress arms; but in the meantime let me entreat all true patriots to send in all of their muskets, rifles and double-barrel shot guns (good, bad or indifferent,) to the sheriffs of the different counties, whom I do hereby authorize to receive and pay for them agreeably to the attached schedule of prices, and draw on me for the amount necessary.

For good rifles and muskets, $13 and $20 each, according to value; good double-barrel shot guns from $13 to $38, according to value; other arms and parts of arms according to valuation.

I have also been requested to purchase old scr

Important from Washington.

We have important news from Washington city as late as Saturday evening last.

The bill for the abolition of slavery has passed Congress, and is now a law. The vote on its passage in the Senate was twenty-three to nine—every Northern Senator voting for it. Among those voting in the negative was Senator Saulsbury, of Delaware.

The bill, as finally passed, requires every slaveholder in the District to come forward and prove his loyalty within the period of three months; after the term of two years all the slaves in the District are to be positively emancipated, and their masters who are loyal, to be compensated at the rate of two hundred and fifty dollars per head, old and young.

The number of slaves in the District is estimated to be about three thousand.

General Hooper's division, numbering some seven thousand men, that has lately been occupying the lower counties of Maryland, was to cross the Potomac into Stafford county on last Monday.

All the best disciplined troops from every division of the army had been sent down to the Peninsula; and in Baltimore and the other parts of Maryland the Federal force had mostly been displaced by the State militia reserves which had been brought on.

We are assured that within two weeks fifty thousand troops have passed through Baltimore en route for Fortress Monroe. Quite a considerable number had left Washington in transports down the Potomac. It is supposed that the Federal force on the Peninsula exceeded one hundred thousand men.

General McClellan left Washington city on Thursday week last for Fortress Monroe.

The government was evidently afraid of the secession sentiment of Maryland, which is reported to have been lately much inflamed. The line of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad from the Relay House to Frederick was under a strict guard. In the lower counties much bitterness had been occasioned on account of the government having practically admitted the evidence of slaves to convict their masters of treason, disloyalty, and the like. "Contrabands" were flocking to the enemy's standard.

General Hunter who was in command on the Potomac.

A "missionary society" has been organized in the North for the instruction of the "contrabands" in the Carolina and Georgia department. Mrs. Senator Harlan has been appointed the Southern agent, and was to leave in a few days for Beaufort, South Carolina, on the mission to which she has been appointed.

The tenor of the late English papers received in the North is decidedly favourable to the South. The Yankees were sharply reproved for the unreasonable elation over the fall of Donelson. Some of the Lordon papers suggest that the Northern success at Donelson should be made an occasion for the proposition of an armistice on the part of the North, and inflicate, as probable terms of pacification the return of the border States of the Union.

The "Treason Law" in Maryland was to go into operation on the 15th inst. This infamous act of the State Legislature prescribes as treason every act of assistance, not only to the Southern Confederacy, but to persons sympathising with it in the limits of Maryland, including such acts as harbouring of "secessionists," assisting them across the Potomac, &c. The penalty is death.

Mrs. Greenhow has been released, and was to be sent beyond the enemy's lines. Quite a scene had occurred in the yard of the prison in which she was confined—Mrs. Greenhow and another female prisoner having taken possession of a wagon which had been driven into the yard, and driving it around with a Confederate flag displayed, and shouting huzzas for "the Southern wagon." Since then Mrs. Greenhow had been charge with insanity.

Our accounts of the general condition of affairs in the North are intelligent and, we believe, more reliable than the usual information derived from Northern sources.

The general popular sentiment was decided in favor of the prosecution of the war, despite financial straits, with the expectation of shortly smashing off the face of the rebellion. The expenditures of the government are increasing, and are estimated at $2,000,000 per day. The abolition question in Congress is closely watched by what remains of the Democratic party in the North. The measure of emancipation, with respect to the District of Columbia, was regarded as tentative, being looked upon as a prelatory experiment of the emancipation scheme proposed by President Lincoln for the border States. It had produced known and marked disaffection in the army, and it is said that a large number of officers had threatened to throw up their commissions if the anti slavery programme was carried out. Wages have declined in all parts of the North. In the West provisions were dirt cheap, on account of the loss of the Southern market. Ten to fifteen cents for a bushel of corn, twenty to twenty five cents for wheat, five cents for eggs by the dozen, and ten cents a pound for butter.

CITIZENS MEETING.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 12, 1862.

In accordance with a call made by the Commissioners of Charlotte, on Saturday morning a large number of the inhabitants of the Town assembled at the Court House at the appointed hour, when

On motion of S. A. Harris, Esq., the Hon. J. W. Osborne was called to preside as Chairman, and E. H. Britton and A. C. Williamson, Esq., requested to act as Secretaries.

The Chairman having explained the object of the meeting,

On motion of Dr. C. J. Fox, it was

Resolved, That the Town Clock Bell be tendered to the Secretary of War of the Confederate Government, for its use and disposal.

On motion of R. F. Davidson, Esq., it was

Resolved, That the Pastors of the several congregations in Charlotte be requested to bring before their congregations the desire of the citizens that they take under immediate consideration the propriety of tendering their Bells to the Government, to be used as it may seem to them proper in the defence of the country.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That Mayor Davidson be requested, and he is hereby authorized, to communicate the sense of this meeting to the Pastors of the several congregations in Charlotte and to correspond with the Secretary of War so as to carry out the desires of the citizens of Charlotte.

On motion it was

Resolved, That the papers published in Charlotte be requested to publish these proceedings.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

J. W. OSBORNE, Chairman.

E. H. BRITTON, } Secretaries.
A. C. WILLIAMSON, }

The Atlanta (Ga.) Confederacy, of the 11th, contains the following:

MEMPHIS, April 9.—Billy Bell was badly wounded. Island 10 is surrendered. The fight has ceased at Corinth. I leave for that place in the morning.

A. J. ARMSTRONG.

Bells.

The Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptist, and Episcopal Churches of this city, (says the Raleigh Spirit of the Age, of the 14th inst.,) have all donated their Church Bells to the Government, to be melted into cannon. We think the State and City Authorities ought immediately to follow the patriotic example set by the Churches, by giving the Capitol and the Town Hall Bells. But of course they will.

Arrival of Prisoners.

DALTON, GA., April 9.

Eleven car loads of the Federal prisoners captured at the battle of Shiloh, arrived at Chattanooga to-day at six o'clock.

The arms, stores and camp equipage that were caytured are being rapidly removed.

FROM THE STONEWALL BRIGADE.—We have before us a private letter from a member of the Stonewall brigade, which, however, contains little news. The letter is dated the 8th, and states that Gen. Jackson's force is rapidly increasing, but that the enemy still outnumber him almost four to one. The writer says:—"I saw two young men to-day who left Winchester a few days ago. They bring many interesting reports as to affairs there. The basements of the churches have been taken for cavalry stables, as also the market-house. The ladies show the Yankees no countenance, and there is little or no Union feeling there. No Yankees now infest Jefferson, and farming operations are going on briskly with the material left to conduct it."—Richmond Dispatch.

GEN. G. J. PILLOW.—It is said this brave and gallant soldier has satisfied President Davis about the Fort Donelson surrender, and has returned to his command at Corinth, or to some adjacent point. We state the matter as stated to us, upon the report of Madam Rumor, or "the reliable gentleman" who has just arrived in our city.—Memphis Avalanche, 3d.

RESIGNATION OF A NORTHERN CLERGYMAN.—The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer says:

Some sensation has been created in uptown circles by the resignation of Rev. Dr. Hawks, rector of Calvary Church. The doctor, who is a native of North Carolina, has a son in the rebel army, and has always expressed more or less sympathy for the South since the rebellion broke out, and since the "invasion" of his native State by General Burnside, he thinks it his "duty" to return to North Carolina, and hence his resignation. Dr. Hawks, notwithstanding his secession proclivities, has always been personally popular with the majority of his congregation, but under the circumstances it is a matter of congratulation that both pastor and people are released from a situation which was every day becoming more and more embarrassing.

THE BATTLE AT CORINTH.

A gentleman who left Corinth on Wednesday night last states that there was hard fighting on Sunday and Monday last, but none since. The Confederates loss was about five thousand killed and wounded. The Federal loss was about 20,000.

Among the killed on the Federal side were Generals Bush and Wallace.—this is confirmed through other sources.

Up to Wednesday night, seven thousand Federal prisoners had been sent in.

Gen. Polk's division drove five thousand of the Federal troops into the river; about two thousand were lost, and many officers captured.

The woods in the vicinity of the battle-ground having taken fire, many of the wounded on both sides were burnt to death.

Our forces were compelled to destroy the ammunition captured for want of transportation to remove it to a place of safety.

The Federal army, it is stated, is disorganized, and there is no prospect of a renewal of the fight.—Atlanta Confederacy 12th inst.

Our Victory in New Mexico.

It seems that our victory in New Mexico has been followed by the surrender of the garrison at Fort Craig. The capitulation to the New Orleans Picayune says:

Col. Canby, the Federal commander, proposed that himself and command be permitted to depart on condition that they pledge themselves not to serve again during the war, but Gen. Sibley insisted upon an unconditional surrender. With the fall of Fort Craig, the last vestige of Federal rule vanishes from New Mexico.

We are now masters of that vast and wealthy region—have taken all the enemy's strongholds, captured some 4,000 of his men, besides an immense amount of provisions for man and horse, and large stores of ammuniton and arms. The quantities of provisions and ammunition must be large, as Fort Craig was said to be in condition for six months' seige.

ENOUGH TO SUPPRESS THE REBELLION.—A Washington telegram says:

All officers engaged in the recruiting service have been ordered to their regiments, and notice given to the Governors of States that no new enlistments or new levies will be received until further orders from the War Department. The force now in the field is deemed amply sufficient for the suppression of the rebellion and the speedy termination of the war.

While passing through Bridge Row this morning, we met a wagon load of produce from the South Carolina. Here, thought we, is a chance to get something to eat at living prices, and without adding to the pryfits of those "miserable extortioners," (the merchants (!) We found that the patriotic proprietor had set his face like a flint against extortion, and only asked the moderate prices of one dollar per pound for butter, 75 cents per dozen for eggs, and 60 cents for bacon. We left him with a muttered benediction, and concluded that the farmer must haae good cause to decry the merchants for extortion.

Notice to Merchants.

FORWARDING OFFICE S. C. R. R. Co.,
CHARLESTON, March 16, 1861.

THE South Carolina Railroad Company having determined to discontinue this department of the service, the undersigned, who has been the forwarding Agent of the Company for the last four or five years, has associated with him the Chief Clerk in the department, and, under the name of GANTT & STONY, will continue to RECEIVE and FORWARD such articles as may be consigned to his care. He trusts, by strict personal attention, to retain a very liberal share of the business of the department.

Parties are reminded that all goods now reaching this port from points beyond the Confederate States of America, must be entered at the Custom House, and that duties are payable on such as are not purchased on or before the 25th February inst., and laden on shipboard on or before the 15th March instant, save such as are on the free list. It is therefore necessary that remittances be made to pay the duties where duties are payable, AND IS ALL CASES TO COVER THE EXPENSE OF CUSTOM HOUSE ENTRY, WHETHER THE GOODS ARE FREE OR NOT. Prompt compliance will prevent delay and expanse, as all articles not entered and permitted will be stored by the Custom House officers. The South Carolina Railroad Company will advance, as heretofore, the charges of freight, drayage and wharfage, but not the expenses connected with the Custom House.

Rates of charges for forwarding will be very moderate, and may be had on application to GANTT & STONY, to whom all business communications should be addressed.

The undersigned refers to the officers of the South Carolina Railroad Company, to the customers of the Forwarding Department, and to all merchants of standing in the city of Charleston, and respectfully solicits a liberal share of patronage.

JAMES L. GANTT.
Late Forwarding Agent S. C. R. R. Co.

TO THE RESCUE.

To my many friends in Charlotte and its vicinity, I beg leave to state, that having

VOLUNTEERED FOR THE WAR,

it is necessary for me to wind up immediately. Those who

If spared to return when "grim visaged war has smoothed his wrinkled front," I hope to resume business.

READ THIS!
THE SOLDIERS' RELIEF.

Having closed our business in the town of Charlotte, I hereby give you due notice that your notes and accounts for 1861 is ready for settlement. I shall expect all persons (except the soldier in the army,) to come forward immediately and pay up, as I am compelled to have money or suffer. Any man that will keep money in his pocket when it is justly due his fellow man, is doing injustice to himself and his country, therefore I ask you to come forward and put your shoulder to the wheel. Any man that would plead the present stay law might want credit hereafter. Look out.

COME TO THE RESCUE!

Captain William Lee Davidson, commanding Company "D" 7th Regiment, (Col. Campbell's) North Carolina Troops, is anxious to swell the ranks of his company to the maximum number authorised by the Confederate States Congress.

The military character and ability of the 7th Regiment is too well known to need comment. All persons desirous of entering one of the best drilled regiments in the Confederate service, should apply immediately to R. F. Davidson, who is authorized to enlist men for the above company.

The Confederate bounty is deposited at the Branch Bank of N. C., in this place, to be paid recruits immediately after enlisting.

April 3, 1862—3t.

To the People of North Carolina.

At the request of President Davis, I have undertaken to collect all of the arms now in the hands of private citizens of our State. For that purpose I have been invested with authority to borrow, purchase, or, if necessary, to impress them. I am satisfied that it will never be necessary to resort to the use of the last named power. Patriots of North Carolina, our soil is invaded, and though we have men enough to repel the invaders, our men are useless unless they have arms. Upwards of 20,000 stand of arms are now lying useless in our houses; these arms should be collected and placed in the hands of our noble defenders. None but a craven or disloyal citizen will refuse to comply with this requisition. I will immediately appoint agents to go through every county in the State, authorized to borrow, purchase, or, if necessary, impress arms; but in the meantime let me entreat all true patriots to send in all of their muskets, rifles and double-barrel shot guns (good, bad or indifferent,) to the sheriffs of the different counties, whom I do hereby authorize to receive and pay for them agreeably to the attached schedule of prices, and draw on me for the amount necessary.

For good rifles and muskets, $13 and $20 each, according to value; good double-barrel shot guns from $13 to $28, according to value; other arms and parts of arms according to valuation.

I have also been requested to purchase old scrap iron, whether cast or wrought, and of all weights, for which I will pay for the former 1½ cents per pound; for the latter 4 cents. W. S. ASHE.

April 3, 1862—3t

All the papers in the State copy three times and send bills to Maj. W. S. Ashe, Richmond, Va.

NOTICE.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

THE NEWBERN

Daily and Weekly Progress.

IT IS ALREADY KNOWN TO THE PUBLIC that the unceremonious entrance of Burnside into Newbern on Friday last has compelled the temporary suspension of the PROGRESS. This was a barbarous and villanious proceeding of the Burnside, inasmuch as it has deprived the public of the advantages of a good paper, besides the inconvenience to the citizens of Newbern.

By the discomfiture of our arms at Newbern, I have lost everything I had in the world—presses, type, and stock and other office material and fixtures and other property of all kinds. I will go—but still I hope to be able to make arrangements at an early day to issue the PROGRESS at some point not very remote from the old stand; this will depend however upon the extent to which Burnside is able to penetrate the bowels of the land.

Having lost all I have, I must urge all who are indebted to the PROGRESS office to make immediate settlement. Though in the army my address will be for the present, Goldsboro, N. C.

☞ Papers in the State that receive the PROGRESS in exchange will please copy or notice this card. E. J. HALE & SON.
